

TS2019 Practical information Travel

The 6th International TensiNet Symposium “Softening the Habitats: Sustainable Innovations in Minimal Mass Structures and Lightweight Architectures” will take place from the 3th to the 5th of June 2019 at:

Politecnico di Milano,
Piazza Leonardo da Vinci 32,
20133 Milan, Italy.

How to reach the venue of the Symposium

Airports

Milano is served by three airports:

Milano Linate (about 6 km far from Politecnico)

Milano Malpensa (about 45 km)

Bergamo Orio al Serio (about 50 km).

Milano can be easily reached from the airport thanks to special bus and railway service or by taxi.

If you land at Linate Airport:

Air Bus to Centrale Railway Station: Air Bus Linate – Centrale

The most important railway stations in Milano are:

Milano Centrale. It is the main railway station, with international and high-speed train departures.

There are several buses connection to the airports with departure and arrival to the east side of the Station. It is located in Piazzale Duca d’Aosta, and you can easily reach it by metro (green line – number 2; or yellow line – number 3).

Porta Garibaldi. Mostly with regional departures and used by commuters. The Passante Ferroviario connects the station to Bovisa Nord Station and Porta Vittoria Station. It is located in Piazza Sigmund Freud and you can reach it by metro (green line – number 2).

Milano Lambrate. This is an intermediary station, used both for regional and national departures. It is located in piazzale Bottini and you can reach it by metro (green line – number 2)

Milano Cadorna. It is mainly a commuter station, located in Piazzale Luigi Cadorna. From this station you can take the train Malpensa Express to the airport of Malpensa, with departure every 35 minutes. You can reach the station by metro (green line – number 2).

Getting to the campus

Take the subway (green line – number 2) and get off at Piola stop. Leonardo Campus is 2 minute walk from there.
